

Pacific Coast Theological Society: Spring 2009 Meeting

Friday and Saturday, April 17-18

Friday April 17, 2:00 pm until 8:00+ pm,
in the Bade Museum at the Pacific School of Religion and

Saturday April 18, 9:30 am until noon.
in Mudd Room 101,

Topic: Issues in the History from the Reformation to the Present

Friday: 2:00 - 5:00 pm:

Henry Clark and Tony Battaglia, on Charles Taylor's A Secular Age
with Jack Crossley responding to both papers.

5:00 Business meeting and happy hour

6:15 - 8:15 Dinner and autobiography by Jack Elliott

Saturday: 9:30 am - noon:

Chris Ocker on the Reformation and Culture, with Anselm Ramelow responding.

Owen Thomas, "The Origins of Modernity: An Alternate Interpretation of Western Cultural History," Malcolm Young, responding.

For those with internet access, papers will be on the PCTS web-site, <http://www.pcts.org>, linked at the titles of the papers. Others will receive papers by USPS.

If you are coming for dinner on Friday, April 17, we would be grateful for an RSVP, because we need a head-count so we can know how many to order food for. You can pay now ($25./person), or pay at the meeting. Non-members are welcome!

Mail to:

Dr. Sharon P. Burch
31 Maywood Way
San Rafael, CA 94901

or call Sharon Burch at (415) 256-1842, or email at spburch@rcn.com or call Andrew Porter at (925) 443-4041, or email at app@jedp.com, who will forward information to Sharon Burch.

----- cut, if you like -----

PCTS meeting, 2009 April 17-18

_____ and _____ guests will be coming to the meeting for dinner on Friday.