The Board of Trustees of the GTU shall have sole discretion to interpret this Endowment, to control and direct its investment. For investment purposes, the endowment may be merged with any other investment assets of the GTU, but the endowment shall be entered on its books and records as dedicated to the support of the purposes described in this document.

If in the judgment of the Board, changed circumstances at some future time render the envisioned use of the endowment no longer necessary or appropriate as outlined here, then the Board may direct the use of the endowment in other ways to meet the needs and aims it determines appropriate in accordance with the intent of this Gift.
